Boxing Day – Event Card

---

In Scotland, Boxing Day is celebrated each year on the day after Christmas. It commemorates the day on which servants used to receive their gifts from their employers. Today, it is simply known as a bank holiday, and often isn't celebrated very extravagantly.

You received an extra turn on Boxing Day.

MEGOLDÁSOK

181. MERRY CHRISTMAS

1. reindeer
2. angel
3. present
4. Christmas ornament
5. heart
6. Christmas tree
7. Santa's hat

 Christmas in England is different from the Hungarian one. The biggest difference is that Santa Claus does NOT come on 6 December. He comes at Christmas. The real Christmas starts on the morning of 25th December, when children open their presents which Santa Claus puts under the Christmas tree. He comes down the chimneys and puts small presents in the stockings hanging at the fireplaces as well. They eat turkey, Christmas pudding and gingerbread.

183. HALLOWEEN

1. ghost
2. vampire
3. cauldron
4. candle
5. broom
6. witch
7. spiderweb
8. gravestone

9. lantern

The new word is: Halloween.

 Halloween is celebrated all over the UK and the English-speaking countries on 31st October. By tradition, they try to frighten the ghosts of the dead who want to come out of the tombs. So children wear frightening clothes, they carve Jack O' Lanterns and go from house to house saying 'Trick or treat'. They collect some sweets or money. Frightening things are a part of this day, like witches, spiders, cemeteries, etc.
